DOGS OF PHOENIX HAVE FOUND FRIEND

By Associated Press.

The dog catcher is still busy impounding stray dogs and it is estimated by Chief of Police John Moore that the physician's love of dogs will cost him $2,000 before all those in Phoenix are provided with life preservers. Dr. Mahoney is wealthy and declares he can spend his money in no other way that will afford him the pleasure he derives from defending luckless dogs.

Six Special Trains Were Cancelled Yesterday While Many Ticket Holders Gave Orders to Recall Admittance Cards

By Associated Press.
SAN FRANCISCO, June 16.—The fight between Jeffries and Johnson will take place on July 4 as scheduled. If not in San Francisco, then I will pull it off in Reno, Nevada, but the fight will be held on the date set. I shall keep my promise. Once for all, I want to remove all fear of doubt that Jeffries and Johnson will not meet in the ring on July 4. There is no need for the cancellation of special trains or tickets. Those who intended to come to San Francisco can come as planned, and feel assured they will see the fight.

This was the statement made to the Associated Press tonight by Tex Rickard after the Southern Pacific officials had advised the promoter that six special trains had been cancelled during the day. He was greatly agitated by this information and also over the fact that many orders are being received to cancel or re-sell fight tickets. Rickard admitted he didn't have the slightest hope of pulling off the fight in San Francisco.

PRISON TERM FOR MAN WHO SLEW WITH BASEBALL BAT

J. C. Jones of Loyaltan, Cal., must serve fourteen years at San Quentin for killing George King of Beckwith, with a baseball bat last August as the result of a fight at a baseball game between the teams of the respective towns, according to a decision handed down by the appellate court, in upholding the judgment of the Plumas county superior court, which denied Jones a new trial.

Jones led the Royaltan rooters at the game, according to the evidence, when a Beckwith partisan remonstrated with him for using an axe handle in cheering at the side lines. The two began a fight, when another Beckwith man jumped in and assaulted Jones. George King interceded as peacemaker, and Jones left the crowd, only to return with a baseball bat and beat King upon the head when he was not looking. King died the same night.

CONFLICT OVER HOUSE REFORM RULES IS NOW NEARLY ENDED

Three Factions That are Battling May Formulate a Rule Today That Will Prove Acceptable.

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, June 16.—Out of the three-sided battle line in the house of representatives, which has been gradually merging for several days toward a mutual ground of conflict over the reform rules there appears to be an appearance of something like an amicable settlement. After a session of the rules committee lasting most of the day, and two sessions of the insurgent republicans of the house it looked tonight as though tomorrow might evolve a plan upon which the factions can unite. The trouble appears to be over the Clark-Sherley resolution which seems to provide a way for a member to bring into the house a measure after being smothered in committee. Chairman Dalzell and other regular republicans of that committee joined with the democrats in attempting to formulate a rule that work out to the end desired. The fact that the regulars are exhibiting a willingness to join the reform movement is generally commented upon as indicating a rule will be adopted before the adjournment.

Over-zealous volunteers standing on the roof of the courthouse seized his drag rope, causing the craft to veer and strike the building, twisting the frame work and putting the propeller out of commission. Thus helpless the wind caught the balloon and bore it erratically over the East river, where it landed among groups of trees and trolley wires. Firemen rescued Owens uninjured.
